LOCAL BRIEFS.

Paul Smith, charged with obtaining money under false pretenses, was discharged by Judge Diehl.

The state primary associations will go to Salt Lake on Monday, Aug. 3, on which occasion an excellent program will be carried out.

Members of the "Little Christopher" company spent last evening at Salt Lake. It is the intention to have several such outings during the season.

The Salt Lake aerial of Eagles will go to Ogden on Sunday next, where they will be the guests of the Ogden Eagles. The day will be spent at Glenwood park.

N. Childs, who was arrested yesterday by Officer Roberts for being drunk, was taken to the hospital for treatment.

John L. Lambert was brought to the prison yesterday by Sheriff Bailey of Weber county. The man was recently convicted of housebreaking and sentenced to 10 months.

John Dick of the Golden Gate mine at Mercur is at the Rockwell hospital, suffering from a badly sprained knee. The gentleman stepped on a small rock at the mine on Monday night, causing him to lose his balance and fall, with the result.

Miss Emma Ramsey, the well known singer who, with Miss Jennie Seay, accompanied, has completed a successful tour of southern Utah, returned to Salt Lake this morning. After a few days rest here she will give a series of entertainments in Idaho and probably visit the Yellowstone Park.

The editors who have been sojourning heretofore for the past few days, left last evening for Yellowstone Park, where they will continue with nature work for a few days. Many who came in yesterday spent the day at Salt Lake, while others took in the organ recital in the afternoon and Salt Lake in the evening.

The state board of equalization are now receiving the reports of the various county assessors after the same have been reviewed and adjusted by their local boards of equalization. The issuance of the state board's report will depend largely upon the promptness of the arrival of the reports from all the counties.

The board of public works has given notice to the city engineer to have a paved sidewalk on the east side of North Main street between North and South Temple streets. The man was recently arrested at once. Work on the sewer to be laid on First street between Main and A streets will also be taken up at an early date.

The funeral of Henry Wagner will be held from his late residence, 43 Third street, this morning at 10 o'clock. The service will be conducted at 4 o'clock by Dean Edgely of St. Mark's Episcopal church, which will hold the service at the home of Mr. Oliver cemetery according to the wishes of the family. The Knights Templar of which the deceased was a member will attend in a body.

Word has been received in this city that Meese Creechley, for whom a reward of $500 was offered for his capture, was captured at Pima, Ariz. Creechley was convicted of perjury in Oregon county and was released upon $100,000 bonds. Before his time for sentence arrived he left the state and a reward of $500 was offered for his capture. His papers are being drawn up and the man will be brought back for sentence.

E. D. Stillman, a driver for the American Laundry, was seriously injured yesterday by being kicked by a vicious horse. The animal became unruly as the driver was starting from the stable and began kicking vigorously, which was continued until Stillman was thrown from the seat and lay unconscious for several hours. The worst injury was a fracture of the knee cap. He was taken to the Holy Cross hospital. It is felt that the horse's vicious habits are well known and that he has caused trouble before.

The management of Salt Lake announces that the rafting to sleep water for the benefit of the bathing patrons will be operated without fail this evening. It has also been decided to put on the big attraction of "Aladdin" at Salt Lake on Aug. 20, following the circus. All the members of the extravaganza company have arrived and are rehearsing.
